HOW we can support you...

Our vision is that no-one should feel alone when facing the effects of a brain tumour diagnosis.

We support anyone affected by any type of brain tumour, whether you are a patient, family member, friend or colleague.

Our values are to always be INCLUSIVE • SUPPORTIVE • COMPASSIONATE • PROFESSIONAL

Our support services

- One-to-one support
- Telephone support
- Online information
- Support Forums on Facebook
- Specialist welfare and benefits service

Our support team includes trained Support Professionals who bring with them a wide range of knowledge and expertise. We also have a dedicated support line available Monday-Friday, 9am-5pm.

Our support sessions are designed to be both social and informative, with some focussing on specialist topics. All the sessions are relaxed and friendly.

Our one-to-one support enables you to receive support in a way that suits you. Our Support Professionals offer a personal assessment and give ongoing support by telephone, email, text and online.

Knowing you're not alone is what matters, that there is always someone you can turn to.

- Support sessions and groups
- Social events
- Support and information events
- Counselling
- End of life support
- Bereavement support

Our welfare benefits specialist provides information and help relating to benefit applications and appeals, and issues around finance and Power of Attorney.

Our counselling service is a professional and specialised service providing a confidential, secure place to discuss any feelings or issues that you may otherwise find difficult to handle.

Our Facebook peer support provides an opportunity for you to talk directly with others 24/7 in our Brain Tumour Support Forums. They are special places to share experiences and information.

WHEN we can support you...

Our support is available free of charge at any point from the process of diagnosis. We provide a consistent point of contact for you and your loved ones, at any stage and for as long as support is

*You help me feel less lonely
through this journey.*

How we have helped...

At times like this it is so difficult to know how to process your feelings and emotions and to think through the life-changing situation. The counselling is so helpful and supportive and I feel like I am moving forward in learning how to handle my grief.
