Brain Tumour Support is here to provide specialist, ongoing support, to patients, families and loved ones, for as long as it is needed. We support people affected by any type or grade of brain tumour.

Our services include:

- One-to-one emotional support, on the phone, text or online with a dedicated Support Professional
- Online and in-person support groups for patients, caregivers and families
- Specialised welfare benefits support and advice
- Specialist counselling
- Bereavement support during grief and loss

Brain Tumour Support is working alongside clinicians

- Providing emotional and practical support for patients and families
- Helping reduce the pressure on clinicians' time and workload
- Ensuring patients have consistent, specialist support beyond the clinic

How to refer to Brain Tumour Support

- With patient consent, clinicians can make a referral directly via our online referral form:
www.braintumoursupport.co.uk/refer-a-patient
- Alternatively, patients or clinicians can contact us directly:

Support Line:
01454 422701

Email:
support@braintumoursupport.co.uk

We will then get in touch with the patient (or their family/caregiver) to assess their needs and provide the appropriate support.
